Beautiful Bailey Canyon To Be Made A City Park By The Volunteer Firemen

Plan Gets Approval Of Councilmen And The Planning Commission

Work Will Start At Once

At last Bailey Canyon, said to be the most naturally beautiful spot in Los Angeles county and all Southern California, is to become a Sierra Madre Park.

The job is to be undertaken by the city Volunteer Fire Department, the members of which have volunteered to do the work necessary to make the canyon accessible so that it may be enjoyed by the people.

And the work is to begin at once—next Monday.

There being no necessity for a big appropriation by the city or for the raising of a large fund by public subscription there appears now to be nothing in the way of fulfillment of the dream of every true Sierra Madrean.

Heretofore plans to improve the beauty spot by clearing out the underbrush, building roads and piping in water, have hit the financial rocks, for funds had to be provided for the pay of workmen who would have to be employed.

But the firemen propose to do that themselves—with their own hands, just as they have built all save one piece of the city's splendid fighting equipment.

They have arranged for the use of motor driven scoops and shovels and half a dozen of them will begin tearing out a roadway into the South end of the canyon at once.

A committee of the firemen who have been going over the ground for some time visited the canyon yesterday in company with members of the City Planning Commission and the City Council. Members of the Planning Commission have enthusiastically endorsed not only the general proposal advanced by the firemen, but their detailed plans for carrying through the project.

Members of the Council have been quite as enthusiastic and have informally given their consent. It will be necessary, of course, to secure the official sanction of the Council as a body and the firemen have been assured that this will be done most emphatically at next Wednesday's meeting when the action will probably take the form of approving a recommendation of the Planning Commission. On funds appropriated by the Council the Planning Commission has been having the dense undergrowth cleared out during the summer months for the last two years. But the money available permitted scarcely more than a scratch on the surface of the task ahead. By immediately opening up a roadway and re-establishing parts of one that was built years ago part way into the mountain crevice, the firemen expect to make it accessible to the very boundary line of the Angeles Forest.

This end of the canyon, right at the edge of the forest—about a mile of it—is the spot the firemen have in mind for what is to be the firemen's park. In many places it is not more than 25 feet wide and in only a few places is it slightly more than four times that width.

Once the canyon's floor is cleared and the roads built, the firemen propose to run trails off into the mountain, to build shelters and benches and ultimately, perhaps, a club house.

The men are enthusiastic about their undertaking and pleased with the interest and appreciation shown by the officials and the few other citizens with whom they have discussed the matter. Their committee, consisting of Chief W. D. Richards, Frank Lovell, Roy Walsworth and "Bob" Newberry, fairly beamed as it emerged from the canyon with the Planning Commission's approval about sundown last evening.

"What the firemen have done is evidence of what they will do," said Chief Richards, "no matter how long it takes. Of course it is hardly to be supposed that they will drop everything and all of them go right on this job. It will be done in their spare time."

Cities Move To Take Over Water Award

Sierra Madre And Arcadia Councils Arrange For Joint Survey

The City Councils of Sierra Madre and Arcadia at meetings on Wednesday took initial steps looking to the diversion for use of the two cities of water from the Santa Anita dam allocated them at Christmas time by the State Department of Public Works.

The allocation order specified that the municipalities should make suitable moves towards availing themselves of the water before March 1 of this year and plans looking to cooperation between the cities in bringing the water down from the mountain have been under discussion for some time.

At Wednesday's meetings of the two Councils resolutions were adopted calling for a joint survey of the water lines necessary, to be laid and to determine the point at which the water will be taken—either at the dam or in the stream half a mile below. This work will be started on Monday.

There has been no agreement beyond this except an understanding that it would be mutually beneficial to the cities to work together on the project and divide the expenses of making the water available. A conference between the two Councils, their engineers and solicitors is to be arranged for next week.

Robert Babbitt and Samuel Mercer returned on Thursday from a mining trip near Bakersfield.

Mrs. Sarah Forney of Rensselaer, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. George E. Babbitt of Sierra Madre avenue.

State's Most Gorgeous Orange

Show Opened By The Governor

With pre-view statements proclaiming it the most magnificent exposition ever staged by the citrus groups of California, the Twenty-First National Orange Show opened last night in San Bernardino. Flying from the State Capitol, Governor James Rolph Jr. presided at the gala festival.

The feature exhibits towered to hitherto unattempted heights within the vast auditorium building, due to the Persian Garden motif. Each exhibit, a replica built of fruit of some architecturally beautiful monument, is a masterpiece of craftsmanship.

The rack displays hold 15,000,000 individual citrus fruits. Entertainment scheduled for the 10-days of festive joy includes a dozen bands, a score troupes of vaudeville artists, choruses and dance ensembles on the huge auditorium stage.

The second day of the show has been set aside as "Latin-American Day," with Governor De Fajada of Baja, California, and consular groups of Latin-American countries in attendance. Saturday will see the gathering in San Bernardino of California editors and publishers, labor groups, the Scouts, 20-30 club and Pioneer Societies.

Eunice George in the picture above reveals a fashion hint from the big show—use of a cluster of kumquats (cousins of the orange) as a corsage or bouquet for evening or afternoon wear.

Survey Shows Retail Trade Is Improving

Merchants Of State Who Have Adjusted Affairs Show Increased Volume

Indications of improving retail trade conditions in California are reported in a merchandising survey of the state just made public by the University of Southern California. The report was written after extensive inquiry and hundreds of contacts.

"Citrus districts of California are showing better volumes than others," says the report. "In some communities failures have reduced competition and increased volumes for those remaining. Inventories in many instances are too low, resulting in expensive forms of small quantity buying, or in actual loss of patronage. At the same time, consumer inventories may be said to have practically reached bottom and are now showing signs of being relieved by larger purchasing."

"The merchant who sits idly by awaiting the return of good business, however, is deluding himself," the analysis continues. "Now, more than ever, there is a need for clear thinking and planning and the use of sound business promotion principles, including budgets, control and advertising."

Greater Necessity
"Indications which point to better conditions in trade also point to greater competition from chains, not only because of chain-stock expansion but because of chain-stock expansion. There is every evidence that these developments will be heaviest in the mid-west and Pacific areas, and along with them will no doubt come a rise in price lines up to $10 for many of those multiple organizations that heretofore have sold merchandise under $1."

"Vast new fields of merchandise as yet untouched by the chains will surely be entered, and it may be expected that research and experiment will lead these same organizations into improvement of service, merchandise and customer relations. This can only mean

No Fear Felt As Dan McNally Plans To Visit Sierra Madre

Announcement some years ago that Dan McNally, convict, gangster and gunman was coming to Sierra Madre would have created great consternation in this peaceful city. But he will be welcomed with open arms on his arrival Sunday morning, for he is coming to preach at 2:15 that afternoon at the Mission in Christ now being conducted at the Masonic Temple, East Central avenue.

Believed to have been mortally wounded in an attempt to escape arrest during his last criminal effort, McNally was converted and became an evangelist. He has just concluded extraordinarily successful campaigns in San Bernardino, Whittier and other towns of Southern California, for he is a dynamic speaker. Everyone here is invited to hear him.

McNally served eight years in the Missouri penitentiary. Dale Jones, notorious train robber, who was shot to death on Foothill boulevard, Arcadia, in 1919, was a pal of McNally's and served with him in prison.

CITY WILL SPONSOR ANNUAL MT. WILSON FOOT RACE THIS YEAR

Sierra Madre will sponsor the annual Mount Wilson race this year, the Chamber of Commerce decided at its meeting on Monday. No date was fixed or committees appointed to handle the event to which Southern California has come to look forward, pending a conference with officials of the American Athletic Union which was in charge of last year's race, in which there were 68 entries from all parts of the Southwest.

Phillip Hartman, manager of Orchard Camp, handled much of the detail preliminary to the last race. He has been ill in Chicago but it was stated at the Camp yesterday that he will probably return in time to take his accustomed interest in the affair.

More Crimes Are Laid To Local Pair

Jesse Trejo Was Train Bandit, Police Say—Burglaries Here Charged

Local police and the Sheriff's deputies have information that they declare leaves no doubt but that Jesse Trejo of this city was the bandit who held up a Santa Fe transcontinental limited train in Pasadena on January 9.

When he is finally apprehended Trejo and Leroy Pitchford, another local youth and his admitted accomplice, will be held to answer for at least five other major crimes in addition to the hold-up of Gary Lynes and Mrs. Helen Bonham and with attacking Mrs. Bonham near Monrovia on February 1.

Pitchford, committed to the county jail for trial for his part in the Monrovia crimes, in a statement to police, identifies Trejo as the Pasadena train robber whose nerve failed him as the train he was holding up gathered speed and was moving East in Pasadena and who jumped over the railing of the observation car.

Police Chief Gordon McMillen and Officer Harlan Gerlach uncovered evidence here that substantiates Pitchford's statement as to his offense and that was responsible for committal this week of Pedro Trejo of 36 Central avenue, to the county jail for 90 days on a charge of petty theft.

Pedro Trejo admitted to the local police theft of the .45 caliber automatic gun alleged to have been used by Jesse Trejo in the train hold-up and which was afterward found on the Santa Fe tracks by police. It was taken from the mail truck of Ben Stinson on November 26 by Pedro Trejo and turned over to Jesse, Pedro says.

In further confessions and statements to the police Pitchford has identified Jesse Trejo as the burglar who late in December robbed the home of H. E. Jaeger at 620 East Central Avenue, this city, of five rifles and two pistols. They were to be used in the career of crime upon which Trejo embarked, Pitchford says, and were pawned when the young bandit found the pistols did not work perfectly. Pitchford admits having helped try the weapons out.

Buds Appear On The World Famous Wistaria Vine And Fix Date For Great Fete

Quick Sale Of Buie Property As 'Ad' Clicks

Mrs. Blanche Buie of 46 East Highland avenue, has just sold her property at 52 East Highland avenue, to Mrs. Emily Moyer of 108 E. Grand View avenue, through a single insertion of an advertisement in the "Want Ad" department of the SIERRA MADRE NEWS.

"I certainly had expected to run the 'ad' through several issues, but the property having been sold of course I want it discontinued," said Mrs. Buie, "and of course I want to express my great appreciation of the efficacy of NEWS advertising."

Minstrels Give Relief Fund Boost

Sum For Drought-Sufferers Nears The Goal—City Happy Over Shows

Proceeds of two performances given by the Red Cross minstrels, the two dinners by the same organization in connection with the minstrels and generous donations yesterday from several firms and citizens, have brought Sierra Madre's drought relief fund within striking distance but just a little short of the quota assigned this city. Fifteen hundred dollars is the goal. The amount raised is $1329.16. The Red Cross directors believe the difference will be in hand by Sunday night, practically every other city in the San Gabriel Valley having raised its quota.

The minstrel shows grossed $386.85, with expenditures of only $41.41. Dinners served in the grammar school cafeteria before the performances in the auditorium netted $55, and the sale of candy to patrons of the minstrels added $35.30.

An anonymous contribution of $100 was turned in yesterday together with one of $7 from "a friend" and one of $50 by Bassett & Washburn, owners of the famous Kentia palm nursery. Besides adding so substantially to the relief fund the minstrel shows were a real joy to Sierra Madre, which responded splendidly in the matter of attendance and was generous in its approval as the audiences in turn roared. NOTED MINIATURE PAINTER FINDS VALUABLE WORKS ON SHELVES OF CITY'S LIBRARY

By ELLA SHEPARD BUSH
Our Sierra Madre Public Library possesses some very valuable reference books which are much appreciated by the readers who frequent the library.

One of these is the Booklovers' edition in four volumes of William Leon Dawson's "Birds of California."

I met Mr. Dawson when he was beginning his work, the careful study of birds of various sections of the United States. Mr. and Mrs. Dawson lived for a period in different localities, while the research was in progress.

Mr. Dawson was very enthusiastic over the work of the artist whom he selected to portray the birds and I am charmed by Major Allen Brook's illustrations, each bird so definite in its portrayal, yet drawn with much artistic feeling.

This set of volumes is entitled "A Complete Scientific and Popular Account of the 580 Species of Birds Found in the State of California."

Woman's Club Quickly Decides On St. Patrick's Day For Festival's Opening

Plans Are Far Advanced

Tiny spots broke out like measles on the bare branches of Sierra Madre's world-famous wistaria vine at the Fennel estate yesterday.

But they were hailed with joy instead of alarm, for they were the first showing of buds and automatically fixed the date for one of the greatest annual events in California—Sierra Madre's Wistaria Fete.

When Mrs. H. T. Fennel telephoned word of her discovery from Scenic Point yesterday morning there was a hurried conference of leaders of the Woman's Club and St. Patrick's Day, March 17, was tentatively fixed as the opening day of this year's fete which is expected to bring about 75,000 people here during the succeeding three weeks.

Unless there is a marked change in the weather this date will stand for once buds break through they form quickly and under ordinary weather conditions, burst into bloom in three weeks from the time the first show of color appears.

Virginia Jones has been appointed general chairman of the 1931 fete which takes on added importance this year by reason of its place in the program of fiestas arranged throughout California by the State Chamber of Commerce and the California Newspaper Publishers Association to attract visitors here during what was expected to be an off-year for tourists. This will assure it not only State but National publicity that the event has never had heretofore.

Miss Jones announced that the committees so far appointed are the Central Committee, of which Mrs. E. E. Bacon is chairman, assisted by Mrs. H. T. Fennel; the finance committee of which Mrs. H. B. Hersey is chairman, assisted by Mrs. R. S. Corlett and Mrs. W. R. Lees; the Ways and Means committee, with Mrs. Nestor Young as chairman.

Harriet Grant is chairman of Reception and Courtesy committee, Mrs. N. Young of Concessions, Mrs. W. B. Hersey of Grounds, Mrs. Woodson Jones of the luncheons and teas, Mrs. M. R. McBurney in charge of the barbecue, and the candy in charge of Mrs. J. M. Campbell. The Garden Section of the club will be in charge of the Gardens and Flowers, and the Volunteer Fire Department will attend to the parking of automobiles.

MORE NEWCOMERS ARE WELCOMED TO CITY

Rainwater, 273 West Laurel avenue; Mrs. H. R. Chambers, 79 East Laurel avenue, and Dolly Ware, 269 West Laurel avenue.

SIERRA MADRE'S NEW ROAD INTO FOREST IS OF GREAT IMPORTANCE, SAYS RANGER

By V. P. VETTER
District Ranger,
U. S. Forest Service

Since the announcement was made that construction of the proposed Big Santa Anita Canyon Highway would commence at an early date many people have shown a sincere interest in the project. And rightly so, for it is a most important one in very many respects.

I have been asked numerous questions as to what effect the proposed road would have on administration of the Angeles National Forest area directly involved by the project.

Since the Angeles National Forest is principally a protection forest, that is, one in which the major function of the forest cover is towards conservation of rainfall waters for domestic and agricultural use, I will endeavor to show conclusively that in order to give good fire protection to the watershed area that it is necessary to have a high standard road built into it.

During the 1924 San Gabriel fire, the control work was greatly handicapped by the lack of accessible roads into the forest. Day after day the fire burned thousands of acres of valuable forest cover due to the fact that it was impossible to get men and equipment on to the fire line at strategic points in time to be of value. This fire of 1924 caused a change of opinion on fire control. It could be clearly seen that roads into the forest were needed. After the fire a survey was made to ascertain the "hour control" to any point within the forest. Areas were mapped out showing the time necessary to get an organized crew to a fire.

For instance, the area near Sturtevant Camp in Big Santa Anita would take four hours. Of course, some of our good hikers can hike it there in two hours. However, one must realize that the average fire fighter cannot make such time and then be in condition to do much work.

With a road into the same area the "hour control" time would be cut from four hours to one hour, the difference in time meaning the difference in size of fires, because while a fire is small one or two men can control it. As the burning time increases so does the spread of the fire. Therefore, when a fire first starts a few men can put it out. After it burns several hours it would take several hundred men to control it. Recently the Forest Service (Continued Page 10, Column 6)

The court house proposed is to have 75 court rooms and administrative offices and the site and building combined will cost very close to fifteen million dollars. It is urged that if built now the enterprise would furnish employment to a great many men who need work. The judges at a recent meeting adopted a resolution asking the supervisors to provide the building.

Your Family's Health... Your Pocketbook, and Your Convenience Demand MODERN REFRIGERATION

DON'T DISREGARD that 50° Danger Line! We have it to face here in Southern California every day in the year. If you doubt it, call up your Weather Bureau.

Foods spoil, sour, lose their freshness above 50°. Bacteria and poisons develop. Nutrition values decline. There is waste and less and needless expense. Heat becomes a robber, when it is not something worse, in the family larder.

Health, economy, convenience all demand efficient, dependable, modern refrigeration...refrigeration that automatically holds foods below the Danger Line.

GENERAL ELECTRIC is that kind of refrigeration...easy to buy, now, during GENERAL ELECTRIC MONTH.

A camera with an "eye" so fast that it photographs, distinctly, a bullet in flight, has just been perfected.

When it goes back to work after the 30-day recess the legislature will have 3,000 bills to consider—yet it was said when the assembly convened that fewer measures would be presented than for many years. On the contrary, a new high record has been established.

Income tax returns of Californians filed with the Federal government shows that there are at least 2,772 millionaires in this state.

The California Constitution has been amended 173 times since its adoption in 1879.

Though they shipped 20 per cent less oranges in 1930 than in 1929, Orange county's citrus growers received their greatest return of all time last year, according to the annual report of its growers' association. The Valencia, navel and lemon crops brought in $14,463,012.

Contracts have been entered into by the Federal government for the purchase of privately owned land adjoining government land at the South end of the Salton Sea to be used for the creation of a "safety zone" for migratory birds.

The bird refuge will have over 24,715 acres. The location is a favorite resting place for wild ducks.

Rex Goodcell has been delegated to prepare an ordinance for adoption by Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino and Riverside counties to abate or regulate the smudge nuisance without injury to the citrus industry.

California's share of the $80,000,000 appropriation by the government for immediate use in federal road construction will be $3,108,233. Only Illinois, New York, Pennsylvania and Texas will receive larger amounts.

Preparations are now under way for the annual Japanese Cherry Blossom Festival, to be held at Beaumont, Riverside County, on March 29. All of the program is arranged and staged by the Japanese, who come in their picturesque kimonos, just as they would in their old homeland.

The Los Angeles Board of Water and Power Commissioners has contributed in a practical way to the unemployment situation in the city by making available more than $500,000 for unemployment relief and by providing jobs for 1600 men on water and power projects.

Automobile accidents claimed 32,500 lives last year, an increase of four per cent over 1929, though motor registrations increased less than one per cent. The ten states with strong drivers' license laws showed decreases in the death rate averaging 1.5 per cent, and one of them, Rhode Island, enjoyed a reduction of 20.1 per cent. In contrast to this, 24 states without examination laws had an average increase of 8.3 per cent, and in one state the increase totaled 48.1 per cent.

Figures of gas consumption in the United States, given by W. E. Keefe, district manager of the Southern Counties Gas Company, revealed that 80 per cent of the total used in the country during 1930 was natural gas, the remaining 20 per cent consisted of manufactured gas. The magnitude of the natural gas industry is shown by estimated figures of the Pacific Coast Gas Association setting the consumption of natural gas in the United States for 1930 at 2,000,000,000,000 cubic feet, distributed through gas systems.

Congressional Apportionment Not In Friendly Hands At Sacramento

By FREDERICK F. HOUSER
Assemblyman 53rd District
The election of Edward C. Levey of San Francisco as speaker of the assembly by the close vote of 41-39, through the aid of four Los Angeles county assemblymen, has dealt a very severe blow to the welfare of Southern California.

The Congressional Reapportionment committee appointed by the speaker while evenly divided between Northern and Southern California men is dominated by Mr. Levey and according to a statement of his published in the San Francisco Examiner prior to his election as speaker, he does not stand for reapportionment on a basis of banks, corporations and farms within a particular area; in other words on no definite basis at all.

The situation therefore is very grave and it appears extremely doubtful as to whether we will get any redistricting at all and even if a bill is presented by the committee there is serious doubt as to whether it will give Los representing an investment of over $2,250,000,000.00.

In preparation for the centennial of Simon Bolivar, national South American hero, the Mayor of Bogota, has ordered that all homes and buildings in the city be repainted or cleaned before the centennial. Any owner who disobeys this order will be fined. Bogota will now be the envy of every Chamber of Commerce and civic body in the United States. Incidentally, the U.S. Department of Commerce in giving out this information, states that unemployment, heretofore a grave problem in this city, has been largely absorbed by this decree.

Angeles county and Southern California what it deserves. We may be forced to vote against the plan recommended by the committee rather than have an unfair distribution of representation saddled upon us for 10 or 20 years to come.

The remedy will be to wait until the next legislative session when Southern California will have 42 votes in the Assembly instead of the present delegation of 32 and then if we still can't succeed, fall back on the initiative.

Under the new census California is entitled to 20 Congressmen which will mean an increase of nine. As the State has not been reapportioned since 1911 there has been a tremendous shift in the population with the result that we down here are entitled to seven of the nine new representatives. If the legislature fails to act in the manner then the nine will be elected at large and if this should occur Northern California would in all likelihood obtain four or five of the nine instead of the two to which it is entitled on a basis of population.

WHAT THE EXCHANGE IS: The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of more than 12,500 citrus fruit growers, producing over 75% of the California and Arizona citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Subjects Vital To Citrus Growers To Be Discussed

Two subjects of vital importance to the success of citrus growers of California, marketing and irrigation, will hold the spotlight February 24 at the Citrus Institute sessions to be held in San Bernardino in conjunction with the Twenty-First National Orange Show. It was announced yesterday by Arthur J. Brown of San Bernardino, Institute chairman. It is estimated that approximately 400 citrus growers and shippers from all parts of Southern California will be present.

Professor S. H. Becket of the University of California will address the gathering in the morning, revealing the results of several years experimentation in efficient use of irrigating water in citrus groves of Southern California counties. During his investigations, it is announced, Professor Becket has formed conclusions regarding the exact amount of water needed by a fruit tree for maximum productivity under various conditions existing in the several counties. Other irrigation speakers will include Irving H. Althouse of Porterville, and W. T. Wallop of Anaheim.

Marketing problems will be reviewed and aids suggested by R. W. Blackburn of Thermal, president of the California Farm Bureau federation. Following the sessions, which will be held in the Elks club in San Bernardino, the growers will visit the Orange Show.

Counties Will Get $7,000,000 Auto Tax For Road Building

Despite a rather adverse business year, California motor vehicle registrations showed a net gain of 62,325 in 1930. The year's total reached 2,099,293, inclusive of motorcycles and trailers, a 3 per cent gain over 1929 not including approximately 36,000 cars registered under the license exempt classification nor the 91,247 cars registered from other states. The registrations include 1,941,969 passenger cars.

The official totals will be used as a basis for apportioning the motor vehicle license fund, half of which goes to the state highway department and half to the counties for road building purposes after deductions are made for the expense of the division and of the California Highway Patrol. Total fees for apportionment will amount to a figure close to $7,000,000.

Now is the Time to Build!

STRANGE as it may seem, most building is done during a "Boom" when prices are at a peak. Too few persons have the courage and foresight to buy and build when prices are low. But those few are the ones who make money in Real Estate. Let us face facts squarely. Building permits were lower in 1930 than they have been since 1921! But the population is phenomenally increasing until we are now fifth city in the United States. This can mean but one thing... there is bound to be a housing shortage!

No other city in the world enjoys the combined advantages of being a World Port... a Great Manufacturing Center... the heart of a district rich in Agriculture, Oil and Minerals. The completion of Boulder Dam will add immeasurably to the power available for industry and to our agricultural wealth.

The continued growth of Los Angeles is a certainty. Now, while building materials are lower than they have been in years... Now, while skilled labor is plentiful... Right Now when every dollar you spend wisely for building will hasten the return of Prosperity... Now is the time to build!

Employ local labor. Use Los Angeles architects, engineers and contractors. Every man and woman in this entire community will benefit... if you will buy and build with Los Angeles products.

Here and There

By H. L.

When wild flowers adorn every vacant lot and violets grow so freely in all shaded spots that the public can pick them at will, and we cease burning up rare cuttings of roses, and so on, I'll think of something else to advocate—like cutting down the dead orange trees of absentee owners of property. (They ought to have to pay a heavy license for maintaining such a nuisance. I about passing such an ordinance. Mr. Mayor and City Council?)

A Japanese importing firm in San Francisco gave Actor J. J. Hawkins' father here a rubber tree in a consignment of orange trees, 41 years ago. (I was 20 years old, and had owned a successful store four years earlier at Redondo Beach—its first store and only modern building that year.)

That rubber tree now belongs to Mrs. Maude Hogle, of Carmel and Sierra Madre—my sister. Being a gift, same as the school here is a gift to children, that rubber tree will naturally do even more good than expected. It might make more money than all the rest of the tree-consignment. It is trying right now to flourish on high ground though it is a swamp tree in Japan. It oozes rubber late in vast quantities. No telling what a loving gift may do to benefit others.

I own some rich muck land in Florida, and am taking some cuttings from that rubber tree there to see if they will grow better under swamp conditions. Who knows but Thomas A. Edison may look it over. Better than golden rod, I think, and America simply must learn how to produce rubber, for war protection.

Did you know Marlborough Terrace is nearly sold out? And that there is a "mystery ore dump" there and no prospect hole findable so far? Go look see. Solve the mystery for Mr. Huber.

The Southern Pacific R.R. owns the Pacific Electric, which must finally build a new depot here, and my fare to Florida and return will help. If I were rich, I would build that depot and give it to the railroad, which is "too poor" to build one for itself and us, as P. T. M. Smith and Agent Mesecar urged so earnestly.

WEDDED 21 YEARS, TAKE LONG HONEYMOON TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Rutledge of Toronto, Canada, are visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Margaret Blackwell, 126 East Mira Monte avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Rutledge are on a trip celebrating their 21st wedding anniversary.

Figures on the unemployment situation in Los Angeles county when the census was taken last year have just been released by the census bureau. They show 35,357 men and 9128 women "able to work and looking for jobs." Of these 18,964, or 43.2 per cent, had been unemployed for more than eight weeks, and 27,302, of 62.2 per cent, for more than four weeks.

Reports from Spain indicate a Spanish orange crop of approximately 25,000,000 boxes for 1930-31. The crop last year was more than 31,000,000. Extensive damage to the present crop by the Mediterranean fruit fly is disclosed in the report.

Fire Flames

By one of the boys

THE FIRE DEPARTMENT is all "officer up" for another year. The boys and the townsfolk were so well satisfied with the officers of last year that at Friday's annual election they commanded the whole crew for another year—and did it unanimously. "Bill" Richards will therefore have orders for another year. New will keep the minutes and look after the correspondence and Jim Heasley will worry about keeping enough money on hand to meet our financial obligations.

Mrs. Bob Newberry served the dinner for the annual meeting and what a dinner. And since it was a Newberry dinner, Bob washed the dishes. And what a new of dishes.

And then, after the annual election, came a picture of the fire fighting crew—all 20 of them and the new truck, taken in front of the City Hall on Sunday morning.

It is a large panoramic view of the entire outfit taken by Mr. Gray and a very fine picture it has turned out to be. Of course there are some defects, which is only natural with such a person as we have. Bob Babbitt looks as tho' he was sitting on some cactus, but we vouch for him that he is quite pleasant when normal. On the other hand, Louis Karger appears as tho' his wife acquiesced in his absence long enough to have his picture taken. Our handsome brother was there and looked beautiful. In truth, George was exceptionally well colored on this fine Sunday morning. Anyway, the picture was taken and all that desire to have one, can communicate with Mr. Gray.

Chief Richards and a number of the boys attended the meeting of the San Gabriel Firemen's Association last evening and reported a very well attended meeting. It was held at Pasadena. Sierra Madre is soon due to entertain this organization. We hope that we can accomplish this with our usual success. This association brings together men from all parts of the valley, and the active part that our firemen have taken in this has acquainted many with Sierra Madre.

At the beginning of this organization Jim Heasley was chosen as secretary, and the past year, Chief Richards was the president. The Chief refused the nomination the following year.

Altho' it is a well known fact that Frank Lovell is quick on many occasions, it was a complete surprise to all of us to see his ability at shaking his "dogs." As an end man in the recent Minstrel Show, Frank suddenly sprang into a step that may get him into future trouble. He may be asked to show the boys of the valley some of his stuff, when they gather here.

The wife says "You cannot go out, so we sit alone and pout. As we feel our feet grow cold. Once again we hear her scold. Don't you know the FIRE'S OUT."

Endow your teeth with lasting beauty!

More important than keeping your teeth clean is keeping your teeth. Some dentifrices clean your teeth but contribute nothing to their preservation. Rexall Milk of Magnesia Tooth Paste, on the other hand, not only beautifies your teeth by removing disfiguring stains, but also tends to lessen tooth decay by neutralizing the acids that cause it. Add to these features the breath-sweetening power of Rexall Milk of Magnesia Tooth Paste and you have three good reasons for using it.

FLOWERING SHRUBS

IN A MILD CLIMATE like ours here in Sierra Madre we should, as a rule, avoid planting trees and shrubbery that lose their foliage in the winter. But there are a few deciduous plants that should be in every garden in spite of the rule because they make such a mass of color when they bloom and before they put out their new foliage.

Right now, the first of the Japanese Flowering Peach trees are in bloom. The color is deep pink. Very soon the early red varieties will be in bloom and about a month later the late pinks and late reds and also variegated varieties will be in flower.

Flowering peach trees are just as easy to grow as any peach tree and they grow just as large. The Flowering Quinces are in bloom now, too, and what could be more beautiful? They come in red and pink, also. The growth of the tree is rather dwarf, in fact it grows more like a shrub than a tree.

The Pink Flowering Almond is a dainty shrub about five feet high. Its soft shell-pink double flowers cover its slender branches. It blooms during March and April. The picture of these lovely blooms is one that is indelible on the mind.

There are several varieties of Bridal Wreaths. The two best varieties are Double Reevesiana Spirea and Single Van Houttei Spirea. The double variety blooms practically all late winter and early spring. The single variety blooms during March and April. They will both attract a lot of attention in the garden by their masses of snow-white bloom.

There is a dwarf, rose pink Bridal wreath that blooms all summer. It is not so well known but is a very desirable shrub to have. It is called Spirea Anthony Watterer. The Persian Lilacs thrive here splendidly and are semi-dwarf in growth. They are well worth growing and are fragrant, too.

As for the old fashioned Eastern Lilacs, they are a disappointment here. It takes years for them to bloom and then the blooms are usually very small. However, the perfume is the same as it is in the East and that will mean a lot to those who can remember the lilacs in their yards "back home."

The Tamarix blooms late in the spring and the flowers are so delicate and airy, the shrub looks like a soft mist of pink flowers. It grows into a large shrub and is very graceful.

SUSPEND RULE FOR SOME SHADE TREES

Some of the deciduous shade trees are worth growing too. The Umbrella Tree is one of these. I guess there is no tree that will given the dense, cool shade that a large umbrella tree will. They are rapid growing, too, which is a good quality when quick growth is desired. To hurry up their growth, give them lots of water. Two or three Umbrella trees grouped together in a yard will soon make an outdoor summer-house and a delightful place to hang the hammock.

Native Sycamore trees are always artistic, especially when planted in groups. They are easy to grow. The new green leaves in the spring, the full-grown green shade of the summer months, the golden autumn tints in the fall and the white birch-like bark exposed in the winter, give to the Sycamore a never ending charm.

VINES ARE NATURE'S FINISHING TOUCHES

"Vines are nature's finishing touches," writes Hazel Hankinson, horticultural specialist. "Twining gracefully over some part of a home or other structure that is correctly designed, they will call attention to the excellence of the architecture. On the other hand, if a building is ugly, they can be used to hide defects, and to cover what might otherwise be an eyesore. Vines are good working partners with shrubs for screening clothes posts and back fences and garages and many other features that are usually far more useful than beautiful."

Continuing, Miss Hankinson advises that it is well to know what vines are best suited for particular uses. This depends to a great extent on the way they grow. Vines which support themselves dom be planted close to a building of wood. The long slender fingers will creep under shingles and force them apart; they will pry into cracks and make them larger; they may even loosen the siding on a house. For these reasons, vines which have climbing or twisting habits are best for the porch or most other locations on a wooden house.

Answers Old Query Of Hen And The Egg

TO THE SIERRA MADRE NEWS: Even one of the most noted lecturers, in speaking of the creation and government of the Universe recently said, "There is no proof that every object in Creation exists by reason of a mental cause."

But every Christian Scientist, not only disagrees with that statement, but can also prove, taking the Word of God, and revelation for his authority, that every idea in the Universe does exist by reason of a mental cause, and no other. In Job 23:12 the patriarch says: "But He is in One Mind, and who can turn him? And what his soul desireth, even that he doeth."

Also, in the first chapter of Genesis, 11th verse, "And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit of the seed, fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth; and it was so."

So that according to this passage of God's Word, He is shown to be the mental cause for everything that groweth upon the earth, because He said so. Also, in the 27th verse of the same chapter, we read "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him."

Can the Professor prove theoretically or otherwise, that God's image and likeness of Himself is not man? Or that God's image and likeness of Himself does not exist by reason of a mental cause? Suppose the Professor does not agree with the Creation of man as given in the Bible, what of it? On page 508 of the Christian Science Text-Book, we read, "But the seed is in itself, only as the divine Mind is All and reproduces all. The only intelligence or substance of a thought, a seed, or a flower is God, the creator of it."

The Professor says that he is not able to say which came first, the hen or the egg. But he is able to say that the understanding that God is the only Life and Creator, not only answers the ancient question, but also solves the mystery called death, and proves that God's image never dies, through the revelation in Christian Science, that there is but One Life, God, and man is God's reflection of Himself, in each individual—forever, by reason of a mental origin.

It is this mental revelation in Christian Science, which not only heals all manner of diseases, but it also solves the most difficult problems.

For example: If the One Mind fills all space, from everlasting to everlasting, and has his being in God, as the Bible says, then how can it be possible for man, to live in himself independent of God, or how can it be possible for God to live in man, when man lives in God?

And as it is with man created in God's image and likeness, so it is also, with that ancient question, which was first, the hen or the egg? Christian Science answers the question: That neither the hen, nor the egg came first; For neither of them is a Cause, or a Creator, for God is the only Cause and Creator.

How, then, can it be possible for an egg of itself to create the parent of itself? But if the Professor thinks it can, then let him tell us who created that, that produced the egg, that created the parent of itself.

To illustrate this point, according to the material sense of creation, place an egg in an incubator and after 21 days, with proper care, the young chick will burst from the shell. The experienced ought to convince the material senses, that an egg is not what it seems to be, because it seems to have life in itself, which seems to have life in itself.

But to prove to the material senses, that an egg exists by reason of a mental cause, God inspired men to write the Scriptures which say, "If there had been a law that could have given life, then righteousness would have been given by the Law." But did anyone ever hear tell of a law that could have given life, then righteousness would have been given by the Law? But did anyone ever hear tell of a law that could have given life, then righteousness would have been given by the Law?

If God is the only Cause and Creator, how then can it be possible for a hen, of itself, to create an egg, or for an egg, of itself, to create a hen, as it seems to have done in the incubator?

When we can prove to ourselves through right reasoning, according to the Bible and the Christian Science Text-Book that life cannot be found in an egg, any more than it can be found in an incubator, we will be satisfied through this right reasoning of the truth of the Scripture which says, "There is but One Mind, in whom we live, and move, and have our being; and that every idea of the One Mind exists by reason of a mental origin."

The days of a hen's life may be numbered, but the days of God's reflection of Himself in His creation are innumerable.

One-Man Exhibit By Local Artist In Los Angeles City Hall

The Art Commission of Los Angeles has conferred a signal honor on Henry Ivins Hawthurst, of this city, in asking for a one-man exhibit of his paintings in the galleries of the Los Angeles City Hall for the month of March.

Three canvasses exhibited last year received such favorable comment that this year the Art Commission wrote Mr. Hawthurst requesting a one-man showing and especially for examples of the leather brush technique. A large canvas, leather brush work, titled "Moon Madness" will be shown for the first time. Filtering through a shadowed grove of towering trees is the light of the full moon falling on a group of madly dancing figures.

Woman 85 Wants To Motor East Over Trail She Traveled In Covered Wagon In 1852

Objections by members of her family to her oft-repeated desire to go back East in an automobile over the trail she traveled in a covered wagon in 1852 was the only thing that worried Mrs. Fanny R. Thompson when she celebrated her 85th birthday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Emily Moyer, at 108 East Grand View avenue on February 6.

"They think," she said scornfully, "that mother couldn't stand the trip so well, for of course I'd want to come back."

She made the trip from Illinois to California in a train of seven wagons outfitted by her father, Col. John J. Parker, and is curious to see in the fast moving motor car over paved roads, the wild country she bumped over in a springless wagon.

Mrs. Thompson enjoys the best of health and feels entirely equal to the journey. Her eyesight is perfect and she reads a great deal.

Friends Of City In The Forest Service Win Advancements

Sierra Madre figures prominently in a shift of U.S. Government Forest Service employees that brings promotion for three men who are well known through their service here.

Dispatcher M. H. Davis of this district has been promoted to be Assistant Supervisor in the Cleveland Forest in San Diego county. His work brought him into close contact with local citizens with whom he co-operated fully in the matter of fire regulations and in planning the fighting of fires both in the city and in the adjoining forest.

District Ranger V. P. Vetter of this district has been promoted to the position of Dispatcher, succeeding Davis. He also has been in close touch with the affairs of this city in which he has shown keen interest and his advancement is a source of gratification to many local citizens.

George Armstrong, now assistant ranger in the Saugus district of the Angeles Forest, with headquarters at Newhall, comes here in Vetter's place. Armstrong was formerly a forest patrolman in the Santa Anita canyon section of the forest and has many friends and well wishers in the city.

FAREWELL PARTY FOR AN INDIANA VISITOR

Mrs. A. E. Pulling of 382 West Montecito avenue, was hostess last Friday afternoon at a farewell party given in honor of Mrs. J. W. Phares of Evansville, Ind., who has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Mary Houghland of Lima street, since last December. Mrs. E. E. Pulling assisted the hostess with the refreshments.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. P. J. Barnes, Mrs. George McRoberts, Mrs. Francis M. Eakman, Mrs. Alice Sedgeman, Olive Sedgeman, Mrs. Hershey, Mrs. Mary Houghland, Lucille Inglis, Mrs. R. W. Solomon and the honoree, Mrs. Phares.

GUY SCOTT LEAVES CITY'S POLICE FORCE

Guy F. Scott, former night patrolman of the local police department who was injured in an automobile accident at West Central and Sierra Madre avenues 10 days ago, has sufficiently recovered to be about town, though still suffering from some of his hurts. Mr. Scott early this week resigned his position on the police force. James Heasley, one of the most popular members of the fire department, has been filling the position since Scott's accident.

CITY'S AERO CLUB PLANS PURCHASE OF AN AIRSHIP

The purchase of an airplane is contemplated by the Sierra Madre Aero Club, organized two weeks ago, according to Norman B. Jensen, committee chairman of the American Legion, which is sponsoring the new organization.

Ten pupils have enrolled for the free ground school aviation course. Pilot Don Robertson, teacher of aviation at Pasadena Junior College and the Monrovia High School, has volunteered to instruct the class.

A meeting will be held this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the American Legion headquarters. All young men and women interested in flying are urged to attend.

Lionizing Harry Lyons In Florida Town He Founded

Harry Lyons, of this city, is being lionized in the city he founded—Stuart, Florida. On his arrival there last week for a visit he was met at the railroad station by a large outpouring of the citizens and a brass band and has otherwise been hailed like a conquering hero. A day or two after his arrival a public dinner in his honor was given by the town Council and the Chamber of Commerce and he has been the guest of honor at a number of dinners at the homes of the city's leading citizens.

The progressive young town of Stuart is the smallest city in the United States supporting a daily newspaper, "The South Florida Developer" is a real live publication and is very generously supported by the city's business. Speaking editorially of Mr. Lyons' visit, the paper says:

"The reception given Harry Lyons on his return from California after an absence of 3 years was a spontaneous expression of love for one of the best friends this community ever had, and he is back here to set in motion several things which he believes should spur this community on to great prosperity."

VALENTINE PARTY TONIGHT AT THE CONGREGATIONAL

The Friendship club of the Congregational Church is holding a Valentine party in the form of a box social this evening at 8 o'clock, in the Social Hall of the church. Each lady will bring a box for two decorated with Valentine or Washington motifs and a prize will be awarded for the most attractive box. The boxes will be sold to the gentlemen, the proceeds of which will go toward payment on the church mortgage. Games and other entertainment is planned for the evening.

MINSTRELS

and littered at the wise cracks and localisms shot at leading citizens and institutions.

The performances were uniformly good from first to last, the final show being presented to a full house. Francis M. Eakman's rendition of "Old Man River" drew most applause of the black-face numbers and the songs of Leslie Gaze on the final night was vociferously applauded.

Mrs. Jessica H. Wright, under whose direction the minstrel show was produced, was presented with numerous bouquets of flowers over the footlights on the night of the final show and was later presented with a huge valentine in which the performers expressed to her their own and the thanks of the people of the city for her efforts. The Red Cross directors at a supper following the show expressed their deep appreciation of the efforts of the entire cast.
